Government counsel has three cases on the October 29, 2018 docket. One case, USA v. Schrand (4:17-cr-00100-GAF), has many more witnesses and some of the witnesses have conflicts on the second week. Therefore the Government is requesting that Schrand case be set for the first week. Government counsel has a training on the second week at the end of the week. If it is a bench trial it will probably be a one day trial. Government counsel could possibly do the latter part of the first week if it is a bench trial.
